

Larry E. Johnson, AIA, LEED AP

Education

Master of Architecture, University of Washington, 1976

Bachelor of Arts in Urban Planning, University of Washington, 1971

Professional Registration

Licensed for Architecture in State of Washington, 1980, No. 3550

Licensed for Architecture in State of Hawaii, 1982, No. 5383

Meets the Secretary of the Interior's Professional Qualifications Standards in Architectural History and Historic Architecture

Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED) Accredited Professional, 2009

Membership

American Institute of Architects, Seattle Chapter

Society of Architectural Historians, Marion Dean Ross Chapter

Association of Preservation Technologies International

National Trust for Historic Preservation

Washington Trust for Historic Preservation

Historic Seattle, past Council Member

Contact

larry@tjp.us

Principal Architect/Architectural Historian

Larry E. Johnson has a diverse background in community and regional planning, residential and commercial architectural design, historic preservation, and project management. He established The Johnson Partnership in 1980 and serves as principal in charge of the firm's architectural and historic preservation services.

Architectural Services

- Architectural design and drawing
- Project management, including site observation

Historic Evaluation & Preservation

- Practical experience both recommending and implementing the Secretary of the Interior's Standards for Historic Preservation
- Writes and researches Landmark Nomination Reports
- Writes and researches National Register Nominations

Awards

Seattle Times/Seattle AIA, Home of the Month, "Thorslund Residence," January 1999

Design Award and People's Choice Award, "Wake Residence," Timber Framing Guild of North America, 1995

Publications, Papers & Presentations

"In Residence: How to Research a Building—A MOHAI Nearby History Workshop," Historic Seattle, May 15, 2010

"Federal Section 106—Port of Everett Case Study," Washington Public Ports Association, March 2006

"Architect in Arcadia: Ellsworth Prime Storey and Moran State Park," Marion Dean Ross Pacific Northwest Chapter, Society of Architectural Historians, 2005. Also Society of Architectural Historians, National Conference, 1995

"Bungalows in the Ravenna Neighborhood," with Lawrence Kreisman, hon. AIA, article for Pacific Coast Arts & Crafts Exposition III, 1995

"Shifting Through the Values," Spokane Historical Society, September 2004

"Pass the Crowbar, or Researching Your House from the Ground Up," Seattle Public Library Lecture Series, 1996

"Un-bungled Bungalows," American Bungalow Magazine, Summer 1996

"A Compact Timber-Frame Farmhouse," Fine Homebuilding, November 1996

Pro Bono Historic Resource Projects

Friends of Ravenna-Cowen: Board Member, Architectural Historian, for the creation of a National Historic District (433 resources), 2018

Ballard Carnegie Library, Seattle Landmark Nomination, 2012

Neptune Building, Seattle Landmark Nomination, 2012

Seventh Church of Christ, Scientist, Seattle Landmark Nomination, 2009

Dearborn House, Seattle Landmark Nomination, 2006

Sloop Pirate, National Historic Register Nomination, 2000

